

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Infusive Compounding Global Equities ETF seeks to track the investment results of the Infusive Global Consumer Champions Index (MSCI). The index constituents represent the long-term compounding power of Consumer Alpha™ and companies whose products or services elicit joy, pleasure and happiness.

CONSUMER ALPHA™ FRAMEWORK

Infusive has identified that deep-rooted human impulses and desires are immutable and drive consumer decisions, and ultimately, the long-term performance of products and companies. The consumer's decision as to which company's products to use drives Infusive's decision on where to invest capital. The vote of confidence of the consumer is the key driver of success.

The performance quoted represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results and current performance may be higher or lower than the performance shown. Investment results and principal value will fluctuate so that shares, when sold or redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. To obtain data current to the most recent month-end, please refer to our website at www.infusive.com. Market price returns are based on the midpoint of the bid/ask spread at 4 pm ET and do not represent the returns an investor would receive if shares were traded at other times. ETF shares are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund.

DISCLOSURES AND DISCLAIMERS

The Fund is not actively managed, and the Advisor generally does not attempt to take defensive positions under any market conditions, including declining markets. The Fund may be susceptible to an increased risk of loss, including losses due to adverse events that affect the Fund's investments more than the market as a whole, to the extent that the Fund's investments are concentrated in the securities of a particular issuer or issuers, country, group of countries, region, market, industry, group of industries, sector or asset class. There is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve a high degree of correlation to the Underlying Index and therefore achieve its investment objective. Market disruptions and regulatory restrictions could have an adverse effect on the Fund's ability its exposure to the required levels in order to tracking the Underlying Index. The Fund is new with limited operating history. Exchange-Traded Funds (ETFs) trade like stocks, are subject to investment risk, and will fluctuate in market value. Unlike mutual funds, ETF shares are not individually redeemable directly with the Fund, and are bought and sold on secondary market at market price, which may be higher or lower than the ETF's net asset value (NAV). Transactions in shares of ETFs will result in brokerage commissions, which will reduce returns. You cannot invest directly in an Index.

Consumer Alpha Definition:

Infusive defines Consumer Alpha as a company's superior financial performance that is the direct result of products or services that meet basic physical and psychological human needs. Perennial demand for these products reflects a human emotional pursuit for pleasure, joy, and happiness that Infusive expects to last as long as human nature endures."

Alpha Definition:

Alpha refers to the active return on an investment, as measured by the performance of that investment compared with a suitable market index. For example, an alpha of 1% means the investment's return on investment over a selected period of time was 1% better than the market during that same period; a negative alpha means the investment underperformed the market.

Basis Points Definition: 1 basis point equals 1/100th of 1%.
